GENERAL NEWS.

Reception Tendered to Mrs. John Brown at Chicago.

MORMON MISSIONARIES RUN OUT OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

A Descendant of Mary, Queen of Scots, Married—Manager Locke's Troubles Increasing—A Heavy Mortgage.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—The reception to the widow of John Brown, the liberator, at Farwell hall to-night in connection with the effort to raise money to pay her homestead in California, was attended by about 1000 persons. The address of the evening was delivered by State Attorney Luther Laflin Mills. Reminiscences of John Brown were presented in person or by letter by Allan Pinkerton, H. B. Hurd, L. [illegible], Dr. Samuel Willard and other conductors on the underground railway in slavery days. The exercises were protracted to a late hour and closed with the singing of "John Brown's Body," by the assembled people. It is impossible as yet to give an approximate estimate of the amount realized, but it was probably quite a handsome sum. The night was rainy and many who bought tickets were not present. One of the most interesting reminiscences was from a letter from Allan Pinkerton, the well-known detective, who told how one morning John Brown, on whose head a price had been set, came to his house in Chicago with a body of nearly one hundred fugitive slaves on the way to Canada. Brown demanded help for them and Pinkerton soon secured the use of a car on the Michigan Central railroad and then went into a political meeting and collected over $500 to help them along. They were placed into the car and landed safely in the dominion.

Relief of John Brown's Widow.

The net receipts from the reception to Mrs. John Brown last night was $211, and Collector Spaulding of this port is engaged in raising a subscription for her benefit.

An Anti-Beer Article.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 1.—The Germania, the only German paper published here that is not in full harmony with the anti-Sabbatarian and anti-temperance movements instituted by the brewing and liquor interests, in an editorial to-day thus treats the subject: "Whither are we drifting, when we find the German papers of Milwaukee to convince us that the interests of the Germans are identical with those of beer brewers? When, some time ago, the agitation for and against the temperance movement in Iowa was in progress, the Germania claimed that the wild and continually repeated howl of the brewers' and distillers' organs forced many anti-prohibitionists into the temperance camp. We are very apt, it appears, to witness a repetition of affairs in Wisconsin before long. Without the least provocation a portion of the local German press begins its warfare against all elements which did not happen to be generated in a beer barrel or whisky bottle. It has called forth a storm of indignation which it is impossible now to allay. The views of those papers are falsely represented the views of the German element."

Iron Statistics.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 1.—The Age of Steel will publish tomorrow letters from about half the rolling mills and nail works in Pittsburg district in response to an inquiry concerning shortage of the product, the number of men idle and the amount of wages lost in consequence of the June strike. From 20 mills reporting it is shown that the probable output from June 1st to September 1st, had the strike not occurred, would have been, 175,000 tons of various iron products, and nearly 30,000 kegs of nails. The number of men idle in these mills in consequence of the strike are 11,140, and of wages lost by them during three months of idleness, $1,676,300.

Manager Locke's Troubles.

Locke, formerly manager of Bush street theater of San Francisco, and now charged with being a fugitive from justice, was remanded until September 5th by Justice Brayton. The printing firm of [illegible] is also being sued against him for a debt of $[illegible]. The lessees are privileged to cut timber for telegraph poles and fuel, and burn coal for fuel on restriction, and they are also granted such favorable land in the reservation as they may need for raising of vegetables and forage for use of visitors to the park. The contract especially stipulates that no member or delegate to congress, or officer or agent of the government shall have any interest in the park.

CRIMINAL NOTES.

Dick Little's Trial.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Aug 31.—The most interesting attraction in Huntsville to-day was the trial of Dick Little, which began before Commissioners Bone and McCullough. The prisoner came in early, evidently in the best spirits. The court room was filled to overflowing. The first witness called was Mrs. Jesse James who was examined at length. It developed in the first of the testimony that Frank and Jesse James, with their families, lived in Nashville from November, 1880, until the latter part of March, 1881. Her statements were not at all damaging to the prisoner and so far as the Muscle Shoals robbery was concerned Mrs. James exploded a pretty little story which has been going the rounds of the press about her returning a watch to Mr. Peony, in Philadelphia. She indignantly denied doing so, but claimed Little stole the watch and returned it in her name. Alex G. Smith, the man robbed was next examined and gave his story of the robbery which the public is familiar with. He did not recognize Little as one of the men who committed the robbery. Other witnesses were examined but nothing important was brought out. Six other witnesses will be examined.

Hanged.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 1.—Chip Smith was executed to-day. He met his fate bravely and was accompanied to the gallows by Sheriff Bixbee, deputy sheriffs Cahill and Pond, and Fathers McGinney, Mulcahey and Dunn. About 500 persons witnessed the execution. Smith said he wanted to meet his fate like a true soldier of Christ.

A Slayer Arrested.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Bob Ford, Jesse James' executioner, was arrested on the street this morning charged with disorderly conduct and carrying concealed weapons. The Ford brothers have been living a fast life here the past two weeks playing in cheap theaters and seeking notoriety on the levee.

Murder and Robbery.

Yesterday Martin Hope Price, a young Englishman living on Fred Hooper's ranche at Red river Springs, was shot and killed by a Mexican herder, who then compelled Mrs. Hope to give him all the money in the house. Taking Hope's best horse the murderer escaped.

YELLOW FEVER.

Poor Pensacola.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Aug. 31.—Six new cases of yellow fever are reported to-day. Total cases to date, [illegible], deaths, 2. A number of persons who left the city have returned, not able to find an abiding place elsewhere on account of the rigid quarantine against Pensacola people. Greenville, Alabama, is so anxious that they threaten to tear up the railroad tracks. The postmaster of this city has received a communication from the authorities at Birmingham, Alabama, requesting that no mail be sent to that point from Pensacola. The Pensacola and Atlantic railway has discontinued daily trains to Milton, which place is quarantined against us. Steamer communication is also suspended. Mottin's mills, 15 miles distant, has established pickets around the settlement. Our people are cheerful and there is no desire to leave the city.

The Fever Spreading.

GALVESTON, Aug. 31.—Austin special: The governor has received a message from the county judge of Hidalgo stating the yellow fever was spreading [illegible] above Brownsville on the American side of the Rio Grande.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Continuation of Hostilities on the Macedonian Frontier.

ARABI PASHA MASSING HIS TROOPS AT TEL-EL-KEBIR.

Serious Trouble at Dublin—Police in a State of Insurrection—Skirmishing Between the British and Egyptian Outposts.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

VIENNA, Sept. 1.—All Greek forces in Macedonia have been ordered to concentrate on the frontier.

ATHENS, Sept. 1.—It is stated the powers have advised an armistice between the Turkish and Greek troops, and Greece is willing to agree to the proposition if Greek troops are allowed to continue to occupy the positions held before the fighting.

General War Notes.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 31.—A large supply of fresh water has been discovered in some old Egyptian wells.

Arabs are coming to Ramleh in considerable numbers bringing their effects.

The enemy are repairing their fortifications.

Our outposts captured five signalers, who have been flashing lights from the front of our position to Arabi's camp. They seem to be Fellaheen, but possibly they are Arab telegraphists in disguise. They will be tried by a native court. A spy says that Arabi Pasha has a dozen such signalers in our camp.

Major General Lowe is concentrating his entire cavalry, including three Indian regiments, at Mahsameh.

Col. Tulloch to-day found half a dozen wounded Egyptians who had been lying unattended since Monday's fight. Among them was an officer of artillery who, when discovered, was almost insensible, but upon restoratives being given him he recovered speech. He said that the Bedouins killed all the wounded they found on the battle field who were not Mussulmans.

The affair of the 28th caused much depression at Tel-el-Kebir, but Arabi Pasha, upon arriving there, personally sent troops forward to attack Kassassin. Before dispatching them upon their mission he made a short speech, saying that our movement in their rear had thrown the Egyptian plans down into complete confusion, and that it was absolutely necessary to defeat the enemy.

This morning General Wilkinson, in command of the Indian cavalry, reconducted a reconnoissance on the right and Colonel Tulloch on the left. We got within sight of the enemy's lines, his pickets falling back, and sketches were made of his position, which is not considered so strong as has been expected.

PORT SAID, Sept. 1.—Transports from Alexandria, with the Highland brigade on board, have arrived here and proceeded down the canal.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Aug. 31.—The democrats of the 8th congressional district have nominated S. E. Rose.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 31.—Democrats of the 1st district at Hannibal have nominated W. H. Hatch for re-election to congress.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 1.—Mahmud Fehmy, Arabi Pasha's chief engineer and military adviser, who was recently captured by the British, arrived to-day in the troop ship Euphrates and was handed over to the Egyptian authorities. The khedive first guaranteed he would not be put to death without consent of the British. After being questioned by the Egyptian minister concerning Arabi Pasha's movements, he was conducted under a strong guard to the governor's house, where he is imprisoned.

Trouble in Cairo.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 31.—News is received from Cairo that at the meeting of notables, August 29th, at which the governor of Ismailia was present, speeches were made recognizing Arabi Pasha as the sole ruler of Egypt. The prefect of police, on hearing this, declared against Arabi Pasha and ordered the arrest of all persons present at the meeting. He is organizing Turkish police for the protection of the khedive's interests. The governor of El Arieh has declared for Arabi and influenced two tribes of Bedouins in his favor.

A Small Point Made.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 1.—Forty seamen from the ironclad Minotaur and a company of the 53d regiment quietly approached the enemy's position opposite Ramleh last evening and succeeded in blowing up with gun cotton a house on the canal which long had been a point of advantage to the enemy's sharpshooters.

Different Report.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—General Graham's account of the battle of Kassassin shows that the infantry, instead of, as reported, being in great difficulty at the time the cavalry advanced, co-operated with the latter in the attack.

Not Confirmed.

LONDON, Aug 31.—No confirmation of the reports concerning negotiations between Arabi Pasha and General Wolseley has been received by the government.

The Turks give in.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 1.—The porte has resolved to surrender the disputed point on the frontier on condition that it is declared neutral territory.

New Camp Made.

KASSASSIN, Sept. 1.—During a reconnoissance yesterday a fresh entrenched camp was discovered ten miles from here.

Owes Canal Tolls.

PORT SAID, Sept. 1.—The English admiralty owes the Suez Canal Company £72,000 for transportation of men-of-war to date.

Left for Egypt.

MALTA, Sept. 1.—The transport Teviat left here for Egypt with 400 gunners, 30 siege guns and a quantity of ammunition.

Suggests a Modification.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 1.—The porte has suggested another slight modification in the military convention with Great Britain, in regard to the latter's disposition of troops in Egypt. Lord Dufferin, the British embassador, has telegraphed to his government for instructions.

Bold Attempt at Escape.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 1.—A desperate attempt was recently made to release a political prisoner confined in the prison at Saratafat. During the hour allowed the prisoners for exercise, a cart containing two men drove up to the jail and made signals to the prisoner, who was walking within the prison enclosure, guarded by a jailor. The prisoner at once threw sand in the eyes of the jailor and ran to a wall, while the men in the cart fired revolvers and mortally wounded the jailor. The liberated prisoner and his rescuers drove off, but were stopped by persons who witnessed the occurrence, and after a desperate struggle, in which one of the liberators was killed, the other men were captured. The crowd tried to lynch them, but it was prevented. The captured liberator states he is the son of a landed proprietor.

The Steamer Nepison Aground.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The coastguard at Wicklow, on the eastern coast of Ireland, telegraphs that the British steamer Nepizon, from Liverpool yesterday for Montreal, is aground on Arklow bank. Arrangements are fast being perfected for an elaborate carnival to be held at the close of the present fair at Mechanics' pavilion. A committee of ladies, of which Mrs. Pierre B. Cornwall, wife of the president of Mechanics' Institute, is chairman, has the matter in charge. A meeting of the board of directors of Mechanics' Institute will be held the first of next week, and provisions to use the pavilion for the carnival will be considered at that time.

To-day there was something of old time activity in mining stocks. It is evident that operators are real hungry after the surplus money that is supposed to be in the hands of the toiling masses, including honest farmers. It is thought the present spurt will develop orders to buy all along the line. Stocks are jumping from 10 to 100 per cent. in a single day, at least on paper. It will be hard to resist the temptation to take a few shares just for a flyer, and much hard money will no doubt go into stock and will eventually flow into the coffers of the few who have grown rich by these operations. On the stock board Alta sold at 75c to $1 10. This is a gain of over 150 per cent. from yesterday. Benton sold at 20c, a gain of 100 per cent. in 24 hours. California sold at 25c, a gain of 65 per cent; Consolidated Imperial, which has been unsalable for months at 5c, is suddenly in demand at 10@15c, a gain of 100 and 200 per cent. A week ago Hale & Norcross was dull at 80c and to-day it is sold up to $2 60, a gain of 225 per cent. Potosi has advanced nearly 100 per cent. within a week and Exchequer has risen 200 per cent in three days. Julia has risen 100 per cent. in 24 hours.

A Notable Visitor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1.—Among the prominent passengers who will soon visit San Francisco, is Capt. Eyre M. Shaw, chief officer of the metropolitan fire brigade of London. Capt. Shaw is now in the United States on his second visit, and comes for the express purpose of attending the annual convention of chief engineers, to be held at Cincinnati in a few days. He is an enthusiastic fireman, studying the principles as well as the practice of fire extinguishment, and has published several important works on the subject. He has been invited by the marquis of Lorne to accompany him on his transcontinental trip and may accompany the vice regal party to this city.

Murder at Wood River.

SALT LAKE, Sept. 1.—The Tribune's Wood river correspondent furnishes the following: Hailey was the scene of an atrocious murder on Tuesday, the 29th ult. During a quarrel, Frank Brown shot and killed F. M. Adams, a prominent mining operator of Wood river. It appears that Brown and a man named Taylor had been quarreling over a mining sale, when Adams came up and attempted to stop the quarrel. An altercation ensued between Brown and Adams, and the latter struck the former and received in return a bullet through his heart. After being shot, Adams knocked Brown down and was giving him a severe beating when outside parties interfered and separated them. Adams then walked to a drug store near by and fell, dying in a few minutes. None of the bystanders had any idea that Adams was shot, as he walked away as if he had come out best, but on being examined it was found that the bullet had pierced his heart. It was particularly sad, as he had just closed a large mining transaction and was to start the following day for Chicago to meet his wife. It is said that Brown formerly lived in Utah and has wealthy relations living in Omaha and Denver. Public opinion varies. Some think Brown was justifiable, while others are loud in their denunciations of the murder. All, however, agree that murders and shooting are growing too frequent on Wood river and a stop must be put to them. This makes seven murderers confined in the county jail at Hailey.

Arizona Indian Troubles.

TUCSON, Aug. 31.—Star advices from Tubac, A. T., to-day say the following are the facts in regard to Indian troubles in this section: A band, supposed to be Juh's, numbering about 200, has been operating in Sonora for about two months, and about the last of the week met Mexican troops at San Antonio pass and whipped them. They then camped near our line and divided up into three or four bands, each taking a different direction. One band struck the Upper St. Cruz near Lanoria and crossed the Patagonia to the St. Cruz road, striking a point two or three miles above Chato Martinez. Here they are said to have killed three prospectors. They then crossed the San Juan mountains and struck the Magdalena road about three miles above the custom house at Frantherisa, and when last seen were making for Planchos De Plata.

Tombstone advices state that Wm. Johnson, cattle man, near the head of the Savara river, was killed by Apaches in Sonora near the custom house, on the line.

Four Americans and one Mexican were killed last Sunday near Barasuchi. Mexican troops are in close pursuit of Indians in that section.

CALIFORNIA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

M. M. Estee, of San Francisco, Nominated for Governor on the First Ballot—General Convention Notes.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 31.

When the railroad plank was reached Parks offered an amendment striking out the clauses relative to reduction of rates of the contract system and interstate regulation by congress. A long debate ensued, Parks and Johnson, of Sacramento, spoke in favor of the amendment and Knight, of San Francisco, opposed it. M. Farland favored the amendment and Chamberlain opposed it.

Shafter, of Marion, by consent of the chairman and convention made a few corrections in the phraseology of the railroad plank, and Pixley, of San Francisco, asked Shafter as a lawyer whether it was possible for a court or legislature to provide against corporations making contracts with merchants.

Shafter replied that it would be lawful for the legislature to declare such a contract illegal and not to be enforced.

Swift, of San Francisco, said it was the opinion of the committee on platform that such contracts restrain competition upon sea and rivers and were invalid because of the facts at common law.

The amendment was rejected and the railroad plank adopted.

On reaching the anti-slickens plank, Walling of Nevada said the matter should be left to the courts, and offered the following substitute:

Resolved, That all questions of injury arising between the agriculturist and miner, should be left to the adjudication of courts.

Drury Malone moved to strike out the resolution. Discussion followed between Jewett of Marysville, Roberts of Nevada, Cheney of Los Angeles, Nelson of Humboldt, Moulton of Colusa, Reed of Calaveras, Boyd of Nevada and others, which resulted in the Slickens plank entire being dropped from the platform by a vote of 333 to 116.

Nominations for governor being in order, Horace Davis nominated M. M. Estee, dwelling especially on his anti-monopoly record. The nomination was received with long continued applause and cheering.

Robinson of Alameda nominated M. C. Blake. Barnes of San Francisco seconded the nomination in a speech, reviewing Blake's clear record as a jurist and public official.

Chamberlain of Humboldt nominated Jos. Russ, paying particular attention to his business qualifications.

Knight and Swift of San Francisco seconded the nomination of Estee.

Sears of Marin nominated James McM. Shafter in a telling speech, which created unlooked for enthusiasm. Adjourned.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 1.—Upon re-convening a resolution was adopted that each candidate except for justices appear and endorse the resolution.

Estee walked up the centre aisle on the arm of Horace Davis. Loud cheers and applause greeted the candidates.

First ballot for governor—Estee, 229; Blake 203. Estee's nomination was made unanimous on motion of Barnes. A scene of wild cheering ensued.

Estee, in his speech before the balloting, unreservedly endorsed the platform and scored the railroad company in the most vigorous manner, as a menace to the liberties of the people, commercial freedom and equal distribution of the burdens of government. He had made no promises, had not spent a dollar to secure the nomination and would not do it to secure his election. He pledged himself to a faithful performance of his duty.

Mayor Blake, speaking before the balloting, approved the platform in its entirety and believed the people needed protection more than corporations. He had no intimacy with the railroad magnates and had received no favors from them, and would make no pledge except to the convention and to the people. He referred to his public record as his best claims to the nomination.

Russ said he was not an orator and would not inflict a speech on the convention. He was pledged to no one and indorsed every word of the platform.

Shafter spoke at some length in an amusing style, saying that about two thousand persons had told him he ought to be governor and United States senator, but they never voted for him.

The convention then proceeded to ballot.

Estee, after his nomination, contented himself with thanking the convention at some length, and saying he had no enmity against any one and believed the campaign would be a successful one.

Before the vote was announced, Colusa changed two for Estee, Modoc from Russ to Estee, San Diego three from Russ to Estee, Butte one from Shafter to Estee, Del Norte from Russ to Estee, Humboldt from Russ to Estee, Merced one vote from Blake to Estee.

The first ballot corrected with changes, stood: Estee, 238; Blake, 202; Shafter, 11; Russ, 2.

For lieutenant governor, the following were placed in nomination: J. C. Tucker, of Alameda; A. R. Conkling, of Inyo, and John P. Stearns, of Santa Barbara. Adjourned till 2 P. M.

Convention reassembled at 2 o'clock, Booth presiding.

Garoutte, of Yolo, seconded Conkling's nomination and on motion speeches were limited to five minutes.

Jewett, of Yuba, asked leave to introduce a resolution, but the motion to suspend the rules to introduce it was lost.

Candidates for lieutenant governor appeared and endorsed the platform and roll call began.

Conkling was nominated for lieut. governor on the first ballot.

The ballot for chief justices resulted in the nominations of John Hunt, judge of the superior court of San Francisco, and J. C. Denson, judge of the superior court of Sacramento.

The convention nominated E. F. Davies, state controller, and adjourned until to-morrow. M. M. Estee, nominee for governor, was serenaded tonight.

W. W. Morrow and Henry Edgerton, were nominated congressmen at large by acclamation.

F. A. Pedlar, of Yolo county, was nominated secretary of state.

District Nominations.

The third district convention nominated G. G. Kimball, of Tehama, for the state board of equalization.

The second congressional district convention met during recess of the state convention and nominated Horace F. Page for congress by acclamation, and for member of the state board of equalization L. C. Moorhouse, of Alameda, was nominated on the first ballot.

The third congressional district nominated Jno. J. Dehaven, of Humboldt, by acclamation.

THE TERRITORIAL UNIVERSITY.

Seattle Chronicle, Aug. 28.

Every indication points to a most successful and prosperous year for the territorial university. There are several reasons for this cheerful outlook. The entire sound country is enjoying a season of unprecedented prosperity. In every branch of business remunerative activity prevails. The lumber traffic, hop culture, mixed farming and manufactories of every description are in a healthy, hopeful condition. Money is plenty. The complaint of stringent, hard times, is not anywhere heard. Obligations are promptly met, and contentment prevails. Parents feel more able to send their boys and girls away from the district schools to institutions where instruction of a higher, more thorough character may be obtained. Lack of ability rather than absence of desire has prevented hitherto a more general and generous support of the territorial university. People now have the means. Again, the pains-taking, conscientious efforts of Dr. Anderson have had great effect upon the institution. The university now occupies no uncertain position. The work accomplished has been of that lasting, profitable character which is the highest recommendation. The institution has grown under his skillful management beyond the hopes of its warmest friends, so that its elevating effects upon the youth of the territory will be marked and permanent. And it is encouraging to note that we have every reason to anticipate under the management of Dr. Anderson's successor, continued development and continued prosperity. It is true that, comparatively, the hardest, most difficult work has been accomplished, the foundation has been laid. But upon Prof. Powell rests the responsibility of maintaining the status of the institution. In fact, he must advance. The work must move onward. Professor Powell is a man in every way worthy of the position he has accepted. His great experience and exact knowledge of the requirements of the university especially qualify him for the work of the coming year. Long a resident of this coast, he is an educator whose labors elsewhere give him practical advantages of great value in assuming control of the territorial institution. In view of all these gratifying conclusions, the officers of the university have abundant occasion to look forward to a period of great prosperity for the institution whose interests they are faithfully laboring to promote.

Astoria's Coasting Business.

From the Astorian, Sept. 1.

Among the enterprises that Astorians are engaged in, that of opening up communication with isolated communities and building up a local trade is deserving of mention. Within the last year there has been a steady and successful effort to secure the trade of outlying communities that by reason of their position and identity of interests should make their headquarters for supplies at Astoria. The Ilwaco Steam Navigation company, and the Shoalwater Bay Transportation company have been doing good work in this respect. They have built first-class vessels, well adapted for the coast trade and have established regular lines of steam travel between various points on the coast. The S. B. T. Co. make it possible now to reach Olympia in 36 hours from Astoria, and that, too, [illegible]

A REMARKABLE CAREER.

Hon. John Tod, for 73 Years a Resident of British North America, Ends an Eventful Life.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.

VICTORIA, Sept. 1.—Yesterday Hon. John Tod, one of the most remarkable of the hardy pioneers of the great northwest, expired in his 91st year. He was the eldest in a large Scotch family and was born at Loch Leven, Dumbartonshire, Scotland, in 1791, and was intended by his parents for a mercantile career. About 1807 Lord Selkirk was establishing his northwest immigration scheme on the Red River of the North, and Tod embarked for York factory, Hudson's Bay, in company with a number of other daring spirits, many of whom occupied positions of trust in after years in the extensive possessions of the Hudson Bay Co. The deceased worked his way up from a clerk to a trader and from a trader to a factor, and then to a chief factor in this service. Before the century was twenty years of age he had traversed the vast territory from Hudson bay to the Columbia river. He remembered every incident of the trouble between the Northwest Fur Co. and the Hudson Bay Co., which culminated in open hostilities on the ground on which the city of Winnipeg is now built, just outside of old Fort Garry. He found his way to Montreal by the great lakes about the time of the war of 1812. There was scarcely a fort in those early days that he did not know and several were afterwards established by him. For nine years subsequently, out in the Peace river country, he never saw the face of a white person or heard the sound of his mother tongue. More than 40 years ago he was selected to take charge of old Fort Kamloops, after the death of a chief factor named Black, who was shot by an Indian in the hall of the fort. At this time old Nicola, from whom Nicola river and valley were named, and his large tribe were much disaffected and the position of the deceased gentleman was one of extreme peril. He was a man who never knew what fear was. On one occasion Nicola and a large band of Indians managed to get in the fort enclosure for the purpose of killing the master and plundering the premises. Mr. Tod being almost alone and unaided, ordered several kegs of powder to be brought to him, and knocking out the head of one, he coolly lighted a match and threatened to blow up the fort, himself and all the Indians by whom he was surrounded, unless they at once left the place and neighborhood. It is needless to say that he was soon master of the situation, and from that time all insubordination among the Indians was at an end. On another occasion while east of the Rockies, the smallpox broke out among the natives, and they imagined that Mr. Tod, the only white man amongst them, spread the fearful disease intentionally. A large deputation waited upon him to talk the matter over and during the conference he was openly accused of wanting to kill all the Indians.

"If," said Mr. Tod, "I wanted to kill you all, I have only to take the cork out of this bottle," pulling it out of his pocket as he spoke, "and every Indian in the room would be a dead man." This remarkable instance of tact and presence of mind, settled that difficulty and his influence from that time was supreme.

It should have been stated in the beginning of this short notice of a very remarkable man, that he was first at Astoria in 1814, having crossed the mountains and reached the Columbia river from the east very shortly after the late John Jacob Astor founded that trading post, afterwards immortalized by Washington Irving.

He was a contemporary of the celebrated Dr. McLaughlin, and was early connected with Fort Vancouver. He retired from the service of the H. B. Co. after leaving Kamloops, about 1847 or 1848, and settled at his late residence on Cadboro bay. In 1856 he was appointed a member of the first executive council of Vancouver Island by the late Sir James Douglas, and held that position for several years. He leaves a large family of four sons and several daughters, and he is understood to have been wealthy. Besides considerable landed property around Cadboro bay and valuable city lots and improvements, he purchased a number of years ago a number of Bank of Montreal shares that have since become very valuable. The deceased for many years of his life kept an accurate journal. Some of those records he lost east of the mountains, and before leaving Kamloops a large heap of them were consigned to the flames, as he then considered that they were not worth the trouble of packing to this city, which was then Fort Victoria. Had these manuscripts been preserved, a most interesting volume of exciting reminiscences of a long and eventful life could have been completed and given to the public.

REFORM RUN MAD.

The mails bring full reports of the proceedings of the National Prohibition Alliance which met last week at Chicago. It is difficult to speak with patience or respect of a body capable of such arrant nonsense as is set forth in its resolutions. For example:

> Resolved, That a license to iniquity or a tax on vice is opposed to every principle of morality, and that the license of the state to the liquor traffic and the tax of the national government upon it must be antagonized if we would preserve the republic.
> Resolved, That prohibitionists cannot consistently vote in any state for the nominees of any party whose national and state platforms do not unite to condemn the tax or license system.

It is wholly misleading to assume, as the prohibitionists do at the outset, that the government tax on distilled spirits is "a tax on vice." Distilled spirits are not a vice. The immediate use of them is a vice. But it is not the use of them that is taxed. Nor is it true that the licensing of places in which liquors may be sold is "a license to iniquity." It is not an iniquity to sell wine or beer, or whisky or brandy, or any other stimulant for proper purposes. The effect of any license as in opposition to no license, is in a measure restrictive.

The general government derived an increase of $69,873,408 from the internal revenue tax on distilled spirits in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1882. In the preceding fiscal year—the last for which we have accurate figures—it derived a further revenue of $6,471,642 from imported spirits and wines. Here are $75,000,000 which the prohibitionists propose to take from the government and give to the liquor dealers. But this is not all. Thousands of municipalities have a considerable revenue from license fees. The city of Chicago last year had an income of $180,000 from this source, though the license fee is put at the absolutely low figure of $52 per annum. It is probable that the aggregate of all the fees from licenses received by municipalities throughout the United States is not less than $10,000,000. The total revenues from special taxes on spirits, beer, and liquor dealers amount in round numbers to $85,000,000. The principle which would forbid the levying of these taxes would equally prohibit the assessing and taxing of distilleries, breweries or places used for the sale of intoxicating liquors. It would give the liquor dealers an exemption which no other class of citizens enjoy. This part of the prohibitionist programme would be heartily approved by manufacturers and dealers in liquors.

The experience of Ohio ought to admonish the prohibitionists that there are two sides to this question. In 1857, when the present constitution of Ohio was adopted, the following amendment was submitted separately and agreed to:

> "No license to traffic in intoxicating liquors shall hereafter be granted in this state, but the general assembly may by law provide against evils resulting therefrom."

This provision has been part of the Ohio constitution ever since. No licenses have been granted, and the supreme court has declared a law taxing saloons to be unconstitutional. Yet there are in Ohio, according to the last report of the commissioner of internal revenue, 14,336 retail liquor dealers. There are in Illinois, where a license law prevails, but 11,524 retail dealers, or 2,812 fewer than in Ohio. The difference in the population of the two states is barely 100,000. The absolute and wretched failure of the no license policy is so generally recognized by temperance men in Ohio that they are now endeavoring to secure an amendment of the constitution so that a high-license law may be enacted. This is distinctively a temperance movement, and it has met with very little or no opposition even among the prohibitionists.

The idea of prohibition of course excludes that of a license law, and when a prohibition amendment is adopted license must cease. But pending the agitation for and against prohibition, it ought to be the wish of all good citizens to see the liquor interests bear a share of the public burdens proportionate to their ability to do so and their direct influence in promoting crime. Why should the tax be taken off whisky before it is removed from clothing? A tax is not an indulgence. The whisky men do not crave the privilege of being taxed. They now have to pay from 300 to 400 per cent. on the first cost of their product. If the tax should be abolished they would pocket a large part of the difference. The fanatical prohibitionists who are opposed to taxing or licensing the manufacture or sale of spirits or beer will find no class of citizens who will so cordially agree with them as those who now pay the taxes.

JOHN BRIGHT ON AMERICAN TRADE.

John Bright has written a letter on American trade which is worth serious attention. Mr. Bright, in all he speaks or writes, is distinguished for his fairness and candor. As a political economist he deplores the policy of protection in America, but candor compels him to point out how that policy has left England without a rival in the trade of the world, and how this policy on the part of the American union has enabled England to harvest the immense profits of the commercial fields which the Americans have abandoned and surrendered.

It is not surprising that a man like John Bright should express astonishment at the voluntary abandonment of the ocean as a highway of commerce by an intelligent and enterprising people with all the means at their disposal of becoming supreme in the carrying trade. In the year 1881 about one-fifth of the trade between the United States and foreign countries was carried on in American vessels. The other four-fifths was done in foreign vessels, and we give the names of the nations whose vessels do the business of carrying American merchandise to and from this country: Great Britain, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Italy, France, Spain, Austria, Belgium, Russia, Holland, Denmark, Portugal and others. All these countries compete for carrying American productions to market because the United States has abandoned the policy of building ships and prohibits the purchase of sea-going vessels by its citizens. Year after year the number of American vessels dwindles, notwithstanding the increase of tonnage engaged in the American foreign trade, and their places are filled by vessels bearing other than the American flag. Mr. Bright justly speaks of this condition as "miserable and humiliating"; nevertheless there are people in this country, many of them professing political wisdom, who claim that this condition is the perfection of prosperity.

The same class of persons affect to believe that the wealth which has accumulated in England during the last twenty years by her almost exclusive sale of manufactured goods is a national calamity compared with the failure of the United States to export any of the manufactures which she might produce and sell in successful competition with our British rivals. This claim that it is better to produce one bushel than ten is the famine theory. It rests upon the theory that to produce one bushel and live on one-half of it, and sell the other at famine prices, is better than to raise ten bushels, consume two, and sell the other eight at fair profit. American manufactures are carried on on this famine policy. They produce one-half or one-third of what they might do with their skill, machinery and labor, and during large parts of the year run their machinery on half time, employ one-half of their labor or work it on half time, and call this an enlightened, intelligent and profitable policy. As Mr. Bright expresses it: "Surely there is intelligence enough in the country to perceive this, and it can only require discussion to bring about a change which would bless every honest industry. The shackles have been struck from the limbs of the slave, and they cannot remain to fetter the freedom of industry."

One of the results of protection over which many of the American advocates exult is that it has partially closed the American markets to Great Britain, but these people, ignorantly or blindly, overlook the fact stated by Mr. Bright that it has given to the English control of all the markets of the world except that of this country. The fact that we have succeeded in excluding from our market a large amount of British trade is hardly a compensatory offset to the exclusion of our own manufactures from all the markets of the world.

The members of the legislature from this city and county will probably endeavor to secure several amendments to the existing charter. Among those needed is a provision authorizing the city government to build a work house in which may be employed persons convicted of violations of city ordinances and who refuse to pay a fine. There are on an average ten or more persons constantly in the city prison of this character, and the number is constantly increasing. Their labor under the present provisions for working them does not amount to enough in value to pay one half their board. In fact it is impracticable now to put more than two or three of them at any useful employment at the same time, and these must be such as the officers have confidence will not try to escape. The others, therefore, are housed and boarded at the expense of the taxpayers, and though the provisions for their accommodation are far from luxurious, as they should be, many of them fare but little if any better during their freedom. What is needed is a building or enclosure where all who are not sick or disabled can be put at some useful employment. Such an arrangement can be easily made, with some slight amendments to the charter, and it would save a very considerable sum to the taxpayers. The amount of fines unpaid per quarter is over $3000, which, in the way prisoners work out their fines under our law would entitle the city to at least 1500 day's work, which at the lowest wages for common labor, $1 50 per day, would be $2250 a quarter, or $9000 a year,—an item well worth saving. There is no justice in compelling the law-abiding taxpayers to support this large class of vicious loafers in idleness, and we hope our city will soon have all the authority which it can practically use to compel them to leave or to put them to some useful work. In the county and city jails there are now probably sixty persons living off the overburdened taxpayers.

---

In the current number of the Century, just at hand, Gen. George B. McClellan has an excellent review of the situation in Egypt, and incidentally a strong defense of England's course in the matter. He takes the ground that the French-English control of the financial affairs of Egypt, while undertaken simply to secure the payment of the debt due their own people, has really not been a burden to the country, but has, on the contrary, greatly benefited it. He thinks the opposition has arisen solely from the officeholders who were turned out to make room for the foreigners, under the new regime. The criminal negligence of the English government in not being prepared to follow up the contest after the bombardment of the Alexandrian forts is severely commented upon.

Mitchell's followers are boasting of his strength with the members of the legislature. Can they point to a single county in the state in which representatives could be chosen upon a platform distinctively supporting him? Not one. His name has swept two good men as candidates for congress on the republican ticket into almost political annihilation, and until he can cancel the history of the overwhelming defeats of Hon. Hiram Smith and Hon. Henry Warren, no follower of his should claim strength for him with the people. There is not a man in Oregon to-day who knows the history of those campaigns but knows that it was Mitchell's name which loaded down the candidates and led the republican party to disastrous defeat.

The last census gave Portland less than 18,000 population, including Chinese. No one doubts that if the enumeration had been thorough the figures would have been much greater. Reliable estimates now place our population at 25,000, not including East Portland, which, though under a special incorporation, is practically part of Portland. The increase in attendance in the public schools, shown a day or two ago in our news columns, is an indication of the rapid growth of population in the city.

---

The people of this coast now have an opportunity of saying "I told you so" to New York. The police there are making an effort to suppress opium smoking and are having a hard job of it. Repeated arrests have served to conceal the vice, not to eradicate it. It is but natural that we should have but little sympathy with eastern people in their troubles with the Chinese.

---

The amount of gold coin held by the associated bankers of New York is $60,000,000, of which the Bank of America holds nearly $40,000,000. The assistant treasurer at New York says that nearly all of this vast sum will be offered for the new certificates, and that if his office is taxed to its utmost capacity it will take thirty days to complete the transfer.

---

Crop reports which The Oregonian published yesterday are in line with previous information. The Willamette valley has about seven-eighths of last year's crop, and the eastern section not much more than half its usual yield. The buying and selling season has fairly commenced.

Sellwood.

A Beautiful Suburban Town on the East Shore of the Willamette.

The Best Opportunity of the Time for a Home.

The streets and avenues of this beautiful site are being rapidly cleared, and lots and blocks are now ready for sale.

Its Advantages to Residents

Are rapid and direct ferry communication with the city, almost level and easily cleared ground, good soil, and the facility for furnishing pure water.

The Steam Ferry

Which the Company guarantees for two years, will, in a pleasant ride of twenty minutes, land you where you can buy a lot for one-tenth the sum asked for one in twenty minutes' walk from the business center of Portland; and in the spring, when the large and swift steamer for which the Company is negotiating is put on, the trip will be reduced to fifteen minutes each way, at the nominal fare of five cents.

Other Means of Access.

No other site near Portland has been improved so lavishly by its proprietors as Sellwood, for the convenience of purchasers and residents. Streets have been opened and cleared, and a plank road from the river to the railroad station at Willsburg is projected, and grading and planking of part of it has been ordered this year, connecting, by a ferry soon to be put on, with Fulton and the macadam road. This road will also cross the East Portland and Oregon City road, so that means of access by railroads, steamer and wagon roads will be unequaled.

Pure Spring Water.

As soon as a sufficient number of lots have been sold to justify it, the best of spring water will be brought through the town, the creek which crosses the eastern length of the site furnishing ample power for the purpose.

The Sellwood Ferry Guaranteed.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Sellwood Real Estate Co., held August 21, 1882, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Sellwood Real Estate Company hereby guarantee that they will keep a Ferry in operation between the town of Sellwood and Portland at present prices to residents of Sellwood for a period of two years, except when unavoidable accidents cause temporary suspension."
H. L. PITTOCK, President.
F. C. GOODIN, Sec'y.

Prices of Lots.

Payable in monthly installments of $5 each:
Corner lots in blocks 1 to 12, $200; inside lots $150.
Corner lots in blocks 13 to 32, 170; inside lots 130.
Corner lots in blocks 32 to 112, 150; inside lots 100.
Ten per cent. discount made to the purchaser of a [illegible]

THROUGH TO MISSOULA.

NOTES ON THE TRIP EASTWARD FROM THOMPSON'S FALLS.

Some Account of the Business of Western Montana and our Possible Relations to It—A Cheerful Prospect, etc., etc.

MISSOULA, Aug. ...

[illegible]

It is ... Missoula ... where the ... Clark's Fork ... [illegible]

... are, however, ... spots where farming may be carried on profitably. Horse Plains is notably among these. Large part of the best land on the route is within the Indian reservation. On the Missoula there is, however, quite a tract of good country, and the Bitter Root valley, which, though it lies a little off the railroad line, is nevertheless within reach of it, contains much good land. But Montana as a whole will never be an agricultural country. It will, however, easily supply its own consumption and produce a surplus besides. Sheep and wool might soon go become a great industry here.

On the west side of the reservation work on the railroad has also been pushed up to the reservation line. Next week a commission from Washington will treat with the Indians for right of way. There may be some difficulty to obtain it, but it is believed that the Indians will yield. The road could avoid the reservation by following up the Missoula river, but the line would be twenty miles longer.

Through its whole course the route is one of the most picturesque imaginable. A remarkable feature is the beauty of the streams. They are clear, cold and rapid, everywhere abounding in fish, and flowing in many places between beautiful banks fringed with trees and undergrowth. The transparency of the waters is very striking. To see such streams is in itself worth a journey across the continent.

The reception of the party at Missoula was as cordial as could be desired. There is more business here than any one expected to see. It is evident that the approach of the railroad has infused new life into the country. Heavy stocks of merchandise in all the leading lines are carried by the principal houses here. Drinking saloons abound, of course, and the general air of the place is that of a "fast" mining and railroad town. It has, besides, a good trade with an agricultural country of considerable extent, and will always be a point of importance in Western Montana. Its distance from Portland by rail will be about 610 miles. The time will probably be about 32 hours by express trains.

There will be a contest at once between the Northern Pacific and the Union Pacific for Montana traffic. Such contest is in fact already begun. The Union Pacific, having pushed its Utah & Northern feeder far into Montana, has been doing the business of the country; and since it has had no competition, it has been doing it at arbitrary and extortionate rates. Portland has made no pretensions to a share in Montana trade hitherto for many years. San Francisco has been cut off absolutely by the Union Pacific, which has refused the Central Pacific all participation in the traffic. By this policy the whole Montana trade has been forced east over the Union Pacific's main line. But now the Northern Pacific enters the field. The effect is already manifest in reduction of rates on goods in certain lines. The Union Pacific selects those goods in which the Pacific coast can compete with the east, and makes a rate of $1 50 per 100 pounds from Chicago to Butte, and will make the like rate to Deer Lodge, so soon as their road is extended to that point, which will be done in a very few weeks. The goods enumerated in this low rate are canned goods of all descriptions, coffee and rice. The tariff on all other goods is as follows, viz: 1st class, $4; 2d class, $3 50; 3d class, $3; 4th class, $2 50. The wagon rate from Butte, or Silver Bow, to Missoula, is $1 60 to $2 per 100 pounds. From Deer Lodge it will be no less. Here then are the freight figures which Portland must meet in any contest for the Western Montana trade.

From Deer Lodge to Missoula the distance is 90 miles; from Steamboat Landing on Clark's Fork to Missoula it is 112 miles. The wagon road from Deer Lodge to Missoula will be a little less than from Steamboat Landing to Missoula; but the railroad will soon shorten the distance on the last named route, and in fact will do away in a few months with the wagon altogether. Mr. Muir, acting for the Northern Pacific, has made a rate for the trade here which will enable Portland to compete, if her merchants will only take advantage of the opportunity. It is necessary, however, to say that goods must be sold at close figures. But it is worth while for Portland to contend for a business which is of no small importance and has hitherto been wholly outside of her territory. Under advantages offered by the Northern Pacific goods in nearly all lines for the Montana trade can be sold in Portland against the rates charged for transportation by the Union Pacific and the Utah Northern. Already as a consequence of the visit of the Portland party large orders sent east have been countermanded by merchants here, who will order in straight car loads by the Northern Pacific such goods as sugar, rice, beans, syrup, wine, whisky, nails, beer, stoves, coal oil, flour, salt, hay, chop feed and barley, and perhaps many other articles. The market here is much larger than most persons would suppose. Goods are wanted by the car load where only a small market was supposed to exist. Yet the demand is nothing in comparison with that which will speedily be developed.

The party has had a most excellent trip. Mr. Muir has taken every necessary measure to make it enjoyable and successful. To Mr. Eddy, of Eddy, Hammond & Co., a firm doing business at Missoula, Butte, Deer Lodge, and half a dozen other places, and transacting on the whole perhaps a larger business than any other house in Montana, the thanks of the whole party are especially due. Mr. Eddy met the whole party at Thompson's Falls, brought it through to Missoula and gave every possible attention to the members while here. Good will has, indeed, been maintained by every one towards the party and its objects. The people here wish to trade with Portland and San Francisco. The severe and long-continued exactions of the Union Pacific is a sore point with them, and they feel the greatest kindness for any who come to give them fairer treatment and better terms.

The railroad is now to make us neighbors with those who have been at great distances. A vast country is opening its doors unto us. It has wants and resources to be studied, and others will have the industry to apply themselves to it if we do not.

H. W. S.

DENSE FOG.—Last night a very heavy fog settled over the city and neighborhood and, with the prevailing smoke, made the atmosphere almost opaque. Objects at 100 feet distance were obscured from view, and in point of weather Portland resembled London when she puts on her very thickest fog. As additional precaution against fires, Chief Engineer Hart engaged six men in the business part of town to patrol the streets and in case of an alarm to quickly point out the exact locality of the fire. The Oregon did not get away at midnight and judging from appearances at two o'clock this morning, river craft will have no little difficulty in navigating.

THE FIRST TEACHER.—Mr. Owen Connelly, who taught the first district school in Portland, more than twenty-three years ago, returned here this week, and will probably remain.

W. J. Quinn, Merchant Taylor, Stark st., received by last steamer two cases of goods, forty-two days from Manchester, England.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST.

Eastern Oregon.

The Baker county fair begins September 27.

Wheat is selling in Pendleton at 60 cents per bushel and barley at 1¼ cents per pound.

Shelby Geiger, who had been for many years engaged in stock raising in Umatilla county, died at his home on Butter creek recently, aged 56 years.

B. F. Hodson sold his farm near Prairie City last week for $800.

An elk was recently killed in the mountains near John Day that weighed when dressed 1060 pounds. The horns weigh 51 pounds, are 44 inches in length, 40 between tips and have six prongs. It was shot at a distance of 500 yards.

Western Oregon.

Oregon City has a new industry in the manufacture of willow ware.

The channel leading into the Oregon City basin is being cleared of rocks and other debris and a large rock that has been the terror of steamboat men ever since the basin has been built has been blasted out of the way.

The Oregon City seminary has been newly painted inside and out, and will be reshingled in the near future. School begins next Monday with the following corps of teachers: A. C. Rhoner, principal; Miss Sadie H. Stough, Miss Ella Phillips and Miss Anna K. Anderson.

School begins at McMinnville college on Wednesday next, with E. C. Anderson, D. D. acting president and professor of Greek, Latin, mental and moral philosophy; P. E. Anderson, A. M., professor of mathematics' physics, French and German, Miss H. A. Baker, preceptress of the preparatory department.

The following particulars of the accidental death of Henry Kerney, about four miles from McMinnville on the 28th of August, are furnished by the Yamhill Reporter: Mr. Kerney was alone in his wagon and was standing up driving. A team came up behind him and he turned to look back. While in this position his team suddenly stopped, pitching him forward, and before he could regain his balance he went over the wagon box and out upon the ground. He struck upon his shoulders and was fatally injured, receiving a paralyzing shock from which he never recovered, dying about four o'clock on the following day. He was a native of Ireland, had resided in Yamhill county many years and was 54 years old.

Washington Territory.

The new school house at Seattle will be furnished at a cost of $3000.

Wheat on Mill Plain, Clarke county, gives an average yield of 27½ bushels to the acre.

James Murphy has just been released from a nine-months' term in the Vancouver jail for wife-beating.

The western division of the territorial teachers' institute held a very pleasant session at Seattle during the present week.

Mrs. Isaac Bull of Albion, Ohio, desires tidings of her son, Charles E. Bull, who left Chico, Cal., for his health in May 1881, for Washington territory, and from whom she has not heard since the date given.

Two or three hundred Indians, on their way to the hop fields up White and Puyallup rivers, camped in Seattle Tuesday, and in the afternoon held one of their old-fashioned war dances, which was participated in by at least 100 of their number.

The contract has been let by the O. R. & N. Co. to board the white men engaged in the work of building their line of road from Walla Walla to Pendleton to John G. Justice at $4.60 per week; the number of men to board, from 100 to 300. The contract specifies that the food must be good, and prepared by first-class cooks.

Monday, the 21st ult., the house of Mr. Moorehead, in Clarke county, was burned down with everything it contained. There were only three small children at home at the time. The oldest, only six years old, with presence of mind unexpected in one of her age, got the others out of the house and took them to the neighbor's half a mile distant. Cause of the fire supposed to be a box of phosphorus setting on a shelf on the south side of the house.

Goldendale public school opens Sept. 4.

Wheat is selling at 60 cents per bushel in Goldendale, sacks furnished.

The Yakima log drive required 123 days to travel from the headwaters of the Yakima to Ainsworth.

Barley is selling for $30 per ton in Walla Walla, against $10 per ton this time last year. So says the Statesman.

The special tax of $2500, voted by the citizens of New Tacoma for school purposes, has been fixed by the directors at the rate of five mills on the dollar.

The Indians are arriving at Tacoma from down the Sound on their way to the Puyallup hop fields, and it is a common sight to see the white sails of twenty or more canoes rounding the point.

L. F. Thompson, of Sumner, has, within the last ten days, bought 30,000 pounds of hops of E. Meeker & Co. at 40 and 45 cents per pound, and 5000 pounds of John V. Meeker at 45 cents per pound.

On the old Presby ranch and the Johnson ranch at Columbus there will be raised about five tons of grapes. Mr. Presby is now shipping to Ainsworth 16 boxes weekly, and will make a considerable quantity into raisins.

Tacoma Ledger: The steam saw mill at Newaukum, a station on the Pacific division, 57 miles south of New Tacoma, was totally destroyed by fire early on the morning of Tuesday, the 29th ult. The mill was owned by the firm of Wadhams & Elliott of Portland and was under the management at the time of burning, of C. W. Prindle, who has for years been the head clerk of the firm. This mill was located along the line of the railroad track and within a few feet of the place where the road crosses the Newaukum creek. The wooden railroad bridge narrowly escaped and would have been burned also but for the fortunate circumstance that the wind carried the flames south and away from the bridge, which was nevertheless scorched. The company will not hereafter permit the erection of a mill or other building in such close proximity to a bridge. By this fire Mr. A. Kellein is reported to have sustained a loss of $4000 in some way, which all of the friends of so good a citizen will regret.

ALL SORTS.

Idaho has a newspaper office and a lager beer saloon combined under one management.

Never insult a milkman by asking him what watering place he is going to this summer.

"John, what is that scar on your chin?" "That scar! Oh, that's a relic of barbarism."

During the house-cleaning season there is no place like home—and that's something to be extremely thankful for.

"Jones, why do you send your wash to a Chinaman?" Jones—"I don't." "You don't?" Jones—"No; he comes and gets it."

A case of hydrophobia, it is alleged, has been developed in New York by the use of tobacco. Delirium tremens from butter milk drinking is next in order.

At a station on a Virginia railroad a traveler threw a stone out of the window, and had to pay $300 for breaking three ribs of a boy. He didn't know it was loaded, but they wouldn't take that excuse.

A dispatch from Chester county, Pennsylvania, says that county is overrun with snakes. Any person knowing the present address of St. Patrick should send it to Chester county at once.—Chicago Tribune.

A TEMPERANCE SONG.

Little drops of claret,
Now and then at first,
Forms an awful habit,
And a dreadful thirst.

A small stream in Pennsylvania, which some years ago was alive with tadpoles and mud turtles, has been permitted to dry up, just because a member of congress refused to ask an appropriation of $160,000 to improve it.

A workman who bought a book showing how to live on fifteen-cent dinners, and followed its advice until he got so weak from his diet that he lost his place and is still out of work, has sued the author of the book for damages.

The home of culture: It is stated that, since the Hon. Tug Wilson declined to be knocked out of time in four rounds, the movement to change the name of Boston to Sullivan City has been abandoned.—Chicago Herald.

A Down-East Reporter's Vacation.

From the Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

There is but one way to take rest, and that is to take it, and to take it we must flee from the scenes of routine and drudgery. There are those who are always idle—those never have any rest. Horace talks of his "strenuous idleness," and Grotius confesses his habit of "laboriously doing nothing." Those who have nothing to do, do not have a fair chance in the world. But we speak to more who have overmuch to do, and who must rest or die, and if they do not take care, rest and die, and then run the risk of getting where there are no sea breezes and spring water. Such persons should pick up their gripsacks and deliberately go to the shore or to the mountain. Recently a Journal reporter took an hour's vacation on one of Minot's haycocks, with the sparrows and swallows coquetting in grass and sky, and he regards that nap as really the divinest moment of a nearly perfected career. Charles James Fox used to say there was only one thing better than lying on the grass with a book, and that was lying on the grass without a book. We concur.

How the Maine Law is Broken.

Bar Harbor Letter in the Boston Transcript.

Pop! pop! Whiz! whiz! Gurgle! gurgle! and the sound thereof is as of the pouring of liquor from a bottle. On this side, on that, behind us, before us, on either hand, everywhere we hear it. "What is that noise?" said Esculapius. "That? Why, that is breaking of the Maine law."

Failure.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 31.—Holden & Timberlake, grain dealers, have suspended. Liabilities only $15,000. Decline in grain the cause.

EASTERN FREIGHT SITUATION.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The tonnage movement from eastern ports for Pacific ports last month ceased with the clearance of the ship John B. Walker at Baltimore with a full cargo of coal, and amounted to four vessels from this port and two from Baltimore, together registering 10,152 tons, against six vessels of 8159 tons in the corresponding month of last year. The total movement thus far this year amounts to 47 vessels, registering 70,740 tons, against 45 vessels of 68,332 tons in the corresponding eight months of last year, an increase in number of vessels but decrease in number of general cargoes, ten of the departures this year being coal laden vessels, against three in the corresponding period of last year. The tonnage on berth and committed to the trade via Cape Horn is less than at any one period for a long time, still it is sufficient for all present requirements or any that are likely to arise in the next 30 days. At least the amount foots up 11 ships, registering an aggregate of 18,050 tons. Of this number three are now nearly loaded and will be off in a few days, while it is probable that four more will follow during the remainder of the month and all with full cargoes. In regard to the market there is nothing new to note, it remaining very quiet. This is not more than could have been expected after a year of comparative activity. However, it is anticipated a reaction will set in by the 1st proximo, and that during the remainder of the year a good business will be done. Rates are quoted as before, but lower prices have been accepted in several instances, notwithstanding full prices are claimed to have been paid for ships. The movement of freight overland has also been less than for some time, but this is owing to the fact that it is yet too early in the season. Shipments the past week include 1501 packages of tobacco, 413 boxes of lemons, 200 barrels currants, 30 bags nuts, 30 cases citrons, 150 cases clams, 25 cases lye, 290 kegs salt fish, 100 cases champagne, 1050 cases bitters, 25 boxes pepper sauce, 20 cases canned goods, 200 kegs nails, 191 boxes soap, 200 cases Indian meal.
